1.2.15
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, January 31, 2004
www.NewCovenant.me

1. The spirit of fear is the master of all spirits, all evil spirits, for it is fear that drives the psyche of man to think in patterns of destruction and insignificance, insignificance except where it is to restrain, control, pervert, and destroy.

2. Fear is a master spirit, a ruling spirit, a powerful monster that latches into the porous particles of the mind, and drives the thinking process in error, in controverted truth, in error, in truth not, often so close to truth but not truth.

3. Master disciples many master fear, and many succumb to major in the minors only, because of the fear demonstrating itself into pathways of neurons of one's spirit.

4. Oh Ted, demolish the strongholds of fear, fear resident in so many, so pervasive. Demagogues reign in fear and always use fear in their reign of terror and suppression.

5. Fear is the most powerful weapon in the world, that satan has, that unleashes the stoppages of warriors who could demolish fear and hoards of hell who march on fear, portray fear, depict fear, and use fear as their most used weapon.

6. Fear, fear, fear Ted, must be driven out to confidence My people like they need to be confidenced to gain the entrée into pathways of power.

7. No fear, no fear, no fear—you've even seen the slogan bannered by those of not Me, because no fear is the right setting—is the most powerful force, because faith in Me, acting upon My words and My sayings, My instructions, My mature move.

8. Demoralize fear Ted, and let them all know that I am fighting this fight, it is My fight, it is My fight and I am fighting it, in and through My body.

9. Those afraid, fearful, timid, will only watch on sidelines and wish they had guts.

10. I am coming in powerful power, exponential power, power you have never ever seen, to crush the head and heel of fear and its suppression of My meek ones who will so powerful be, unleashed, unleashed, unleashed to destroy fear in others, on a wholesale scale, a widespread scale, a huge scale, pervasive.

My turn. My turn, My turn.

11. I live I reign, I come, and I crush fear now. Do it, command it, walk your talk, your thinking that has begun this day, to significance My body after confidencing them driving fear that paralyzed far from them.

I love you.

12. Write, write, write more.
Write, write, write.
I love you.

13. “Fear comes, but faith answers”, no cliché Ted, no cliché, no little nice story to tell—truth, truth, truth.

More, more, more faith, more truth, more of Me.

14. I love you.
I thank you.
Structure of Me you are onto. More, more, more.

I love you.
Thank you.